

The Theatrical Pre-Release, Screened Ahead of Its TV Broadcast, Makes Headlines!
A Special Exhibition for the Latest Installment in the Gundam Series

Anime Tokyo Station Mobile Suit Gundam GQuuuuuuX -Beginning- Special Exhibition

Dates: May 24 to August 11, 2025

Anime Tokyo Station is an anime exhibition site focused on Japanese anime content, which has developed a devout fan base around the world. It regularly hosts special exhibitions for popular anime, and attracts 156,458 visitors (as of April 13, 2025), children and adults alike, from both Japan and overseas.

From May 24 to August 11, it will be hosting a special exhibition for Mobile Suit Gundam GQuuuuuuX -Beginning-, which debuted in theaters ahead of its TV broadcast. This latest installment in the Gundam series, directed by Kazuya Tsurumaki, has generated significant buzz for being the first-ever collaboration between studio khara, known for the Evangelion series, and SUNRISE, the studio behind the Gundam series. The prior to the airing of the TV series, theatrical version using re-edited episodes, has already drawn 2.02 million viewers and earned 3.34 billion yen at the box office, showcasing high anticipation and

The special exhibition will showcase key cuts from the anime that revisit memorable moments from the theatrical pre-release. Visitors can also enjoy character standees, including the protagonist, Amate Yuzuriha (MACHU) and mobile suits, photo spots that recreate scenes from the anime, and valuable production materials such as original scripts. There will also be a special corner where visitors can take AR photos with motifs inspired by characters from the anime—creating a uniquely Anime Tokyo Station experience.

Come to Anime Tokyo Station and experience the full appeal of Mobile Suit Gundam GQuuuuuuX -Beginning-.

*From January 17 to March 30, 2025
